Copenhagen, May 6, N. S.

M. Herslew, the new Bishop of Zealand, was consecrated here on the 30th past, together with another Person promoted to a See in Jutland. On the 3d Instant was performed likewise the Consecration of the Church of our Lady, rebuilt since the Fire: The Ceremonies were very long, and somewhat the more pompous, as the Court assisted at them both. This Morning their Danish Majesties are gone to Fridericksbourg, in order to see in what Condition the Place is, and to make a short Tryal of the Country Air.

Berlin, May 6, N. S. The Marquess de Botta, Lieutenant General in the Emperor's Service, who was sent to Petersbourg some Months ago, arrived here on Tuesday last, and proceeded the next Morning early on his Journey to Vienna, without seeing any of the Prussian Ministers here. Before he came hither he had been at Potzdam, where his Prussian Majesty, to whom he is personally known, kept him at Dinner, and afterwards made him a Present of his Picture set with Diamonds, valued at about 300 Pounds Sterling. The Artillery which was sent from hence some Weeks ago for Wesel, has been stopt at Gluckstadt, because the Officer who conducts it, was not provided with Requisitorial Letters, as is usual in such Cases. This Court being sensible that this was an Omission on their Part, his Prussian Majesty has written a very polite Letter to the King of Denmark, desiring that the Governor of Gluckstadt may be ordered to suffer the said Artillery to pass. Two Days ago a Courier dispatched by the Swedish Ministers at Constantinople, passed through this Town in his Way to Stockholm: He was directed to the Swedish Secretary at this Court, with whom he left two Letters from the Grand Vizier, the one for the King of Prussia, and the other for the Elector of Bavaria, containing, 'tis said, a a Sort of Manifesto, shewing the Reasons and Motives of the War now carrying on between the Ottoman Porte, and the Emperor and Russia. It is supposed a like Letter has been sent to other Courts of Europe.

Hague, May 13. N. S. The States of Utrecht having granted to the Emperor the Liberty refused in Holland, to borrow two Millions and a half of Florins upon the Revenues of Bohemia; the Merchants of Amsterdam and Rotterdam are sending their Money to Utrecht, and it is not doubted but that Sum will be soon subscribed. Count Uhlfeldt went to Utrecht some Days ago to promote that Affair. The Prince of Orange and the Princess Royal his Consort, were expected Yesterday at Loo, in their Way to Breda; where it is said they will remain the greatest Part of the Summer.
